CANNING PLANT IS BEING SOLD

The Littlestown Canning Company on Lumber St. extended in Littlestown is "in process of being sold" to the Greenmount Canning Company of Greenmount, Md., it was learned today.

A current issue of a trade paper reports the sale but inquiry at the plant today brought the statement that the transaction is pending and may be completed within about a week.

The Littlestown plant is owned by Mrs. Margaret Wehler of Littlestown. She has operated the plant since the death of her husband, Melvin J. Wehler in the fall of 1954. The plant was erected in Littlestown more than 30 years ago.

The change in ownership will not effect operations of the Littlestown plant for the coming season, a plant spokesman said today. Peas, tomatoes and beans will be canned there this summer as in recent years and the business will continue under the same name.

MOST TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS DUE TO "MISTAKES"

"Errors of judgment on the part of the drivers" was described by Sgt. Joseph A. Tappe, Chambersburg, of the Pennsylvania State Police, as the cause of most auto accidents in a talk to the local Rotary club Monday evening at its meeting in the YWCA.

The "personal element" enters "most importantly" in safe driving, the state policeman said. He added that weather conditions and mechanical failures are less important factors in the causing of accidents.

Urging alertness on the part of all drivers while they are at the wheel, Sergeant Tappe added a plea that all drivers report to state police violations of the motor code they may see in their travels. Observing that the state police cannot be everywhere at all times, he held that other drivers could help greatly in reducing the amount of reckless driving by informing the police of violations.

The club voted to again sponsor a Little League baseball team and allocated $125 toward that work.

PLAN INQUEST SOON ON MAINER

The inquest into the fatal shooting of Lee Mainer, 32, Blue Ridge Summit, who died Sunday morning after having been shot early Saturday morning will be held "in not less than ten days," Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said today.

Mrs. Mabert Hoffman, 39, Fairfield R. D., who was accompanying Mainer on the night he was shot in Liberty Twp., and who was arrested on a disorderly conduct charge shortly after Mainer was brought to the hospital here, was fined $10 and paid the fine and costs following a hearing Monday evening before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore. She had been in the county jail since early Saturday morning.

George W. Gungell, 42, Fairfield R. D., brother of Mrs. Hoffman, who is charged with murder in the shotgun slaying of Mainer is not planning to seek bail, his attorney, J. Francis Yake Jr., said today. Gungell, who had been set free on bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, Saturday after the shooting, voluntarily went to the state police station here for arraignment after he learned of the death of Mainer Sunday. The assault charge was dropped with the placing of the murder charge.

Funeral arrangements for Mainer are incomplete. The body had been removed to the Grove Funeral Home, Waynesboro, and the family was hopeful of holding funeral services in Sparta, N. COUNTY BOARD OKAYS PLANS AT LITTLESTOWN

The county board of school directors, meeting Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools, Carlisle St., put its stamp of approval on plans of the Littlestown joint school system to add six rooms to the present 18-room Rolling Acres elementary school at Littlestown.

Actually the county board signed approval of requests for "PIBB-40" forms for eight rooms, but it was explained that six of those rooms will be additional classrooms and two will be revisions of present class rooms. The PIBB-40 forms are a step to secure state approval of the project.

While the state Department of Public Instruction was reported ready to approve the increased number of elementary rooms at Littlestown, the state was also reported as questioning the planned increase of the number of rooms at the Littlestown High School. Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegler said the state wishes to know the intentions of Conewago Twp. and McSherrystown before it gives any final approval toward high school expansion at Littlestown.

Write For Decision

Both McSherrystown and Conewago are included in the Littlestown Joint System in the county plan for school development, but neither has ever joined the Littlestown jointure. According to discussion Monday it is believed the two districts may join a proposed jointure or merger of the Hanover school district with several others surrounding Hanover.

However, the matter of the intentions of the two districts must be cleared before Littlestown can get approval for its planned high school addition. As a result letters have been sent both boards asking a formal statement of plans, Riegler said.

A committee comprising M. S. Hershey and J. Faber Wildasin was appointed by President Luther M. Lady to view secondary sites for "Administrative Unit No. 2," whatever its name may eventually be. Administrative Unit No. 2 consists, in the county plan, of the present North Adams jointure, plus Reading, (Continued On Page 2)

George W. Gingell, 42, Fairfield R. D., brother of Mrs. Hoffman, who is charged with murder in the shooting slaying of Mainer is not planning to seek bail, his attorney, J. Francis Yake Jr., said today. Gingell, who has been set free on bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, Saturday after the shooting, voluntarily went to the state police station here for arraignment after he learned of the death of Mainer Sunday. The assault charge was dropped with the placing of the murder charge.

Funeral arrangements for Mainer are incomplete. The body had been removed to the Grove Funeral Home, Waynesboro, and the family was hopeful of holding funeral services in Spanglersburg, S. C., where Mainer was born. Funds were not immediately available and there was a possibility that the service may take place at Fairfield, where a lot has been offered.

TWO COLLEGE GIRLS ACCOSTED

Two co-eds at Gettysburg College were accosted and "insulted" by a young man on the campus about 8 o'clock Sunday evening. One of the girls suffered a slight abrasion of her right hand when she fell on a sidewalk running away from the youth.

Borough police reported that a co-ed was walking on the sidewalk toward Stevens Hall when a man called to her. She turned around and asked what he wanted. His obscene approach frightened her and she ran into Stevens Hall. A few minutes later another co-ed was approached by the same youth in the same offensive manner, as she was walking toward Stevens Hall from the college chapel. The youth grabbed the girl but she broke away and ran. She fell near the building and cut her hand. The youth disappeared.

The assaulter was described as about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches tall; stocky; crew cut hair; wore khaki pants, a plaid jacket or shirt and glasses.

NEW YORK (AP)—A fleet-footed parolee, pursued by two detectives flung glittering gems along Park Avenue yesterday after he allegedly looted two plush apartments.

Police said two detectives saw Louis Basile, 31, stroll out of an East 77th Street apartment house with what looked like a laundry bag over his shoulder. They called to him. He dropped the laundry bag and ran.

SCHEDULE HOLY WEEK SERVICES IN FAIRFIELD

Holy Week Services in Zion Lutheran Church, Fairfield, as announced by the pastor, Rev. Verle C. Schumacher, will include a Maundy Thursday Communion service at 7:30 o'clock. It will begin with the public confession ritual in the nave of the church followed by the reading of Bible passages concerning Jesus and the disciples preparing for the Passover feast, in the Upper Room. The congregation will proceed to the adult Sunday School Room where tables will be arranged with an empty chair at the head.

This will signify the presence of Christ. The tables will be decorated with spring flowers and seven candles simulating the Jewish menorah. There will be no plates, no silverware and no napkins, only fig leaves. Plates of matzo, the Jewish unleavened bread, and small pitchers of grape juice will be passed. At one point in the service a little sprig of water cross will be given to each guest. This is not to be eaten but to be placed on the fig leaf as a symbol of their turning green as the fields do in the spring.

The service has been written to recreate through the use of some of the customs and rituals of the Passover, the spirit of the Last Supper. Dialogue used will be that found in the New Testament. The service will close with the Youth Choir singing "Tis Midnight And On Oliver's Brow."

Lockout Charge Taken To Court

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Plans were announced here today for a lawsuit attacking constitutionality of a recent state ruling that a lockout existed in the strike of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers against Westinghouse Electric Corp.

A list of which companies included in the announcement named Westinghouse, and many others, among them U. S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem Steel Corp. and the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce.

The suit will be filed in the Dauphin County Court, probably Thursday, the announcement said.

It will seek to prevent the processing and payment of unemployment compensation claims filed by some 23,000 Westinghouse workers as a result of the ruling that the dispute was a lockout, the announcement said.

COUNTY BOARD OKAYS PLANS AT LITTLESTOWN

The county board of school directors, meeting Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools, Carlisle St., put its stamp of approval on plans of the Littlestown joint school system to add six rooms to the present 18-room Rolling Acres elementary school at Littlestown.

Actually the county board signed approval of requests for "PIBB-40" forms for eight rooms, but it was explained that six of those rooms will be additional classrooms and two will be revisions of present class rooms. The PIBB-40 forms are a step to secure state approval of the project.

While the state Department of Public Instruction was reported ready to approve the increased number of elementary rooms at Littlestown, the state was also reported as questioning the planned increase of the number of rooms at the Littlestown High School. Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle said the state wishes to know the intentions of Conewago Twp. and McSherrytown before it gives any final approval toward high school expansion at Littlestown.

Write For Decision

Both McSherrytown and Conewago are included in the Littlestown Joint System in the county plan for school development, but neither has ever joined the Littlestown jointure. According to discussion Monday it is believed the two districts may join a proposed jointure or merger of the Hanover school district with several others surrounding Hanover.

However the matter of the intentions of the two districts must be cleared before Littlestown can get approval for its planned high school addition. As a result letters have been sent both boards asking a formal statement of plans, Riegle said.

A committee comprising M. S. Hershey and J. Faber Wildasin was appointed by President Luther M. Lady to view secondary sites for "Administrative Unit No. 2," whatever its name may eventually be, in the county plan, of the present North Adams jointure, plus Reading, (Continued On Page 2)

TITO SEEN AS BIG WINNER IN DENUNCIATION OF J. STALIN

(Editors: Tom Whitney, now assigned to The Associated Press foreign desk in New York, is a former AP Moscow correspondent.)

By TOM WHITNEY
NEW YORK (AP)—One big winner from Nikita Khrushchev's denunciation of Joseph Stalin is another Joseph—better known as Josip Broz Tito, president of Yugoslavia.

Diplomatic sources here indicate Tito may have played a key role in persuading the top Soviet leaders they should openly denounce Stalin for his rule of terror.

Later this year Tito is scheduled to go to Moscow. It will be a triumphal trip for one of the few Communist leaders who ever defied Stalin and lived.

"Comrade Tito" Now
Tito is the man who only little more than three years ago was being pictured in cartoons in the Soviet press as a dog and an executioner in a Gestapo uniform.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda now uses a respectful "Comrade Tito" when it discusses events in Yugoslavia.

The rapprochement between Tito and the Kremlin began soon after Stalin's death. At first it moved slowly. Diplomatic relations were formalized. The Soviet press dropped its anti-Tito campaign. In private conversations in Moscow, Khrushchev admitted to the Yugo-slav ambassador that the fault for the break had been the Soviet Union's.

Put Blame On Russia
In early 1955 there was a heated exchange, however. It was caused by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's speech at the Supreme Soviet in which he attempted to picture the improvement in Soviet-Yugoslav relations as the result of Yugoslav repentance for past sins. Tito attacked Molotov for his statement. The Russians replied in effect by repudiating Molotov.

This set the stage for the trip of party boss Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin to Belgrade. The initiative came from the Soviet side—and Tito accepted the proposal.

When Khrushchev arrived in Belgrade he made an airport statement taking the blame on the Soviet Union for the difficulties between the two countries. He said however, it was the fault of the executed police chiefs, Lavrenty Beria and Victor Abakumov. Tito listened in silence.

The trip resulted in a general understanding between the two men. But it's believed Tito made clear to Khrushchev that there would have to be an open break with Stalinism before Yugoslavia could consider moving closer to the Soviet camp.

Another Journey
Khrushchev went back to Moscow. Later in 1955 there was another journey of a top Soviet leader to Belgrade, little notice in the world's press but of great significance.

Anastas Mikoyan, first deputy premier, took his vacation in Yugoslavia in early autumn. He spent some weeks as Tito's personal guest. The two men, it's known, had a series of frank conversations. Tito, it is believed, stood on his position demanding

FAMILY OF 5 HOMELESS

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A family of five was homeless today after fire destroyed their dwelling at Chambersburg R. 1, about a mile east of here.

Forced to vacate their home yesterday were Charles Mowrey, 63, his wife, their son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mowrey, and a grandson, Michael 10. All escaped injury.

Firemen said the blaze started from an oil stove in the kitchen. The elder Mowrey estimated damage at about $25,000.

an open break with Stalinism. It was Mikoyan who at the 20th Communist party congress in Moscow in February first attacked Stalin openly by name. Khrushchev's speech of Feb. 24, still unpublished, followed that of Mikoyan by a number of days.

The speeches of Mikoyan and Khrushchev were greeted in Belgrade with undisclosed pleasure. Whether Tito will then again enter into a formal alliance with the Soviet Union remains to be seen but such a development cannot by any means be excluded.

Most Of Phillies' Positions Are Fixed

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Manager Mayo Smith seems to have the Philadelphia Phillies starting lineup pretty well set with the exception of the first base and catcher's positions.

Mary Blaylock at present has the edge at first over slugging Stan Lopata whom Smith is trying to convert from his normal catching post.

If Blaylock's fielding earns him the job at first that means the catching job will probably be up for grabs between Andy Semnick and Lopata.

"HUMAN NATURE"

Human nature is peculiar . . . in a lot of different ways . . . I'll relate only a few of . . . oddities mankind portrays . . . first is the reluctant manner . . . in which folks pay what they owe . . . seems like we are quick to borrow . . . whereas paying off comes slow . . . secondly, we're prone to laugh at . . . errors someone else may make . . . but it is a different story . . . when it comes our time to take . . . quick receiving, slow in giving . . . we are all adept at this . . . human nature's really funny . . . very often void of bliss . . . people are the same all over . . . north or south or west or east . . . traits of men are oft referred to . . . as the nature of the beast . . . all of which makes me uncertain . . . are we bad or are we good . . . human nature is a mystery . . . very seldom understood.

Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc. will be held on Wednesday evening, April 4, at Bankert's Restaurant, N. Queen St. The deadline for securing tickets for the banquet is Saturday, March 31.

Amish Musical
To Play In Hershey

"Plain And Fancy," the musical hit which had a year's run on Broadway, will open in Hershey for a one week engagement at the Hershey Community Theater Monday evening, April 23. The musical hit, produced by Richard Kollmar, James W. Gardiner and Yvette Schumacher, focuses attention on the Amish people. It is currently playing in London at the Theater Royal, Drury Lane, with Shirl Conway and Richard Derr recreating their original Broadway roles. The National Company, headed by Alexis Smith and Craig Stevens, has been touring the United States since last August when it opened on the West Coast, and recently ended its road travels in Chicago.

Hailed by critics as "the year's best musical," the book is by Joseph Stein and Will Glickman, the authors of the new Broadway musical, "Mr. Wonderful." Dealing lightly with a sophisticated pair of New Yorkers who visit Bird-In-Hand, the musical has captivated and entertained theatergoers.

Right-Hand Drive
Trucks Are In Use

BALTIMORE (AP)—Thirty-four red, white and blue trucks with right-hand drive, panoramic windshields and "sit-stand" type of seating are cruising Baltimore streets these days. They are the post office department's new look.

They are intended to cut collection and delivery costs and speed up service.

The right-hand drive means the mailman can pull up to the curb and step out without endangering life or limb. Or on the rural routes, he can lean out to pop the mail in the boxes.

Neal A. Sibley, postmaster, believes the small, English-looking trucks will make it possible to serve an eight-hour route in seven hours, permitting extension of the route or release of the mailman for other duties.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mt. Holly Inn Burned: The Holly Inn, famous summer resort at Mt. Holly was completely ruined by fire and water on Friday morning.

The fire started from a defective flue leading from an open fire place and destroyed the two upper stories. The first floor escaped the flames, but was completely ruined by water.

The Mt. Holly Fire Company did good work and were given valuable aid by the Good Will Engine Co., of Carlisle, which made the run to Mt. Holly, a distance of six miles, with four horses in 45 minutes.

The estimate on the losses given out were: Charles H. Mullin, building, $8,000, covered by insurance; Mt. Holly Inn Company, furniture, $3,000 partly covered by insurance; Lewis Meisenheimer, lessee furniture, equipment and stock, $2,000, no insurance.

The original building, a stone structure, was damaged to such an extent that rebuilding will be necessary. This portion was over 100 years old and since its erection has been occupied by many distinguished people. During the Civil War it was the headquarters of a number of generals and their staffs. The hotel will be rebuilt immediately.

Personal: Judge Swope held court in Fulton county last week. H. I. Smith, editor and proprietor of the New Oxford Item, was an agreeable caller at this office Thursday.

Miss Ramey, of Pittsburgh, is visiting Mrs. Sallie Cox. Mrs. Harry P. Buehler and child have returned from an extended visit to Somerset, Ky.

J. Allen Dickson, of Pittsburgh, spent Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Dickson.

Deaths: Cretin — John Henry Cretin, a highly esteemed resident of Mount St. Mary's, died on the 18th inst. He was in his 81st year and had been a merchant in Hagerstown before the war. Mr. Cretin was the first confederate soldier to come back to Hagerstown after the war. He was killed in the battle of Gettysburg. He came riding in advance of his men, stopped at his home, rode his horse to the pavement and threw his arms around his surprised wife, who did not recognize him.

Performed Successful Operation: Drs. Walter H. and Alexander O'Neal on Saturday performed an operation on James Tate, East Middle street, taking two quarts of fluid from the left side of his chest. The operation was a success and Mr. Tate is getting along well.

In the Social Realm: Miss Amy about twenty of her friends at her home on Friday evening. Miss Ellen Crapster, of Taneytown, entertained a number of friends at the home of her grandfather, Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal on Baltimore Street, Thursday evening.

Accepts Call: Rev. H. C. Allen, last week notified the council of Christ church, this place, that he had decided to accept the call extended by the congregation and that he will take charge of this work the first Sunday in May.

Passed 82nd Birthday: Richard D. Armer, the only living charter member of Gettysburg Lodge, No. 124, I.O.O.F., of Gettysburg, celebrated his 82nd birthday last Thursday. For the past few years Mr. Armer's eyesight has been greatly impaired. Aside from this his health is fairly good.

Up-to-date Cigar Store: The rooms occupied by E. S. Faber as a tobacco establishment in the Weaver building, Centre Square, have been greatly improved. The walls have been papered, wood-work painted, new linoleum placed on the floor, etc. The place presents a most inviting appearance and the improvements make it an up-to-date establishment.

Change At The Eagle: Frank Eberhart, who for a number of years has been the owner and manager of the Eagle Hotel, on Monday turned the well-known hostelry over to John Kimple, who recently purchased the good will and fixtures.

Today's Talk

WORDS

Words are wonderful things. They make the world akin. The great literature of all time has come down to us in the shape of words, composed by the outstanding thinkers of the world.

Words are what make up every language, no matter what their formation. Words are bits of thought that fit into combinations that tell the story of civilization. Books of words have been written that have changed the thinking of millions. Here is an expressive brief poem by Emily Dickinson: A word is dead
When it is said.
Some say.
I say it just Begins to live
That day.

Yes, all worthwhile words, with the soul of the writer within them, begin to live the moment they are uttered or written. Words take long journeys. They belt the globe. Some are brilliantly composed into essays, poems, novels and histories. Many make history. Some earn immortality, as Lincoln's Gettysburg speech has.

There is beauty and genuine genius in the formation of words into a composition that has charm and feeling. The earlier periods created a literature of their own that has since influenced all literature. The Greek and Latin languages are examples. Much of each is molded into our everyday English.

Words to have life must be full of meaning. Shakespeare put meaning into all he wrote. No book has ever been composed with such simplicity of words, and clothed in such beauty, as the Bible. Just as literature it leads all other books ever written.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Being Related". Protected, 1956, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

ORDERS

No digging in the garden now;
No cutting of the grass;
And when it's time, I won't allow
Bait casting for the bass.
No shouting at a baseball game;
No mingling with a crowd;
No form of pleasure you can name
Henceforth will be allowed.

No dining with your friends in town;
No shows at night to see;
Just take your pills and settle down
And happy try to be.
Excited now you mustn't get;
That's order number one.
Yes, watch your television set,
Unless a fight is on.
No lifting children to your knee;
No romping on the floor;
A lazy man you'll have to be
For just a few weeks more.
To do that should be easy; so
To do it I'll contrive.
But how, I wonder, will I know
That I am still alive?

A glass front will be put in the store room and other noticeable changes are being made to fit the room for a jewelry store. Mr. Christman and family will occupy the building in the near future.

(When a mountain falls, great is the fall. This, the fourth in an Easter Week series, is about a mountain of a man—and yet, only a man.)

By GEORGE CORNELL

It seemed impossible. But it had happened. Like water seeping into a storm-lashed boat, fear had crept through his body and the great, brawny, indomitable Peter had blurted out his thunderous lie:

"I know not this man, Jesus." Now the words beat in his mind like the hammering of an angry sea. "I know Him not . . . I know Him not . . . What sayest thou? . . . I know Him not." Three times, with rising truculence, he had said it, venom breeding venom.

Then he had begun to curse and swear, hating himself, hating all of them, hating the sound of that cock crowing in the distance, a cock in Jerusalem where no cocks could be kept, but a cock crowing, all the same.

Breaks At Dawn

It was like the mocking death-howl of the wind, like far-off bitter laughter. In the trembling, ominous dawn, as the hooting guards lead their bound victim away, Peter sat hunched on a stoop, sobbing convulsively.

The "rock" had turned into sand. In shame, he plunged back to the moment when the Master first gave him that name. He heard again Jesus' probing questions, heard his own swift ringing declaration of faith: "Thou art the Christ, Son of the living God."

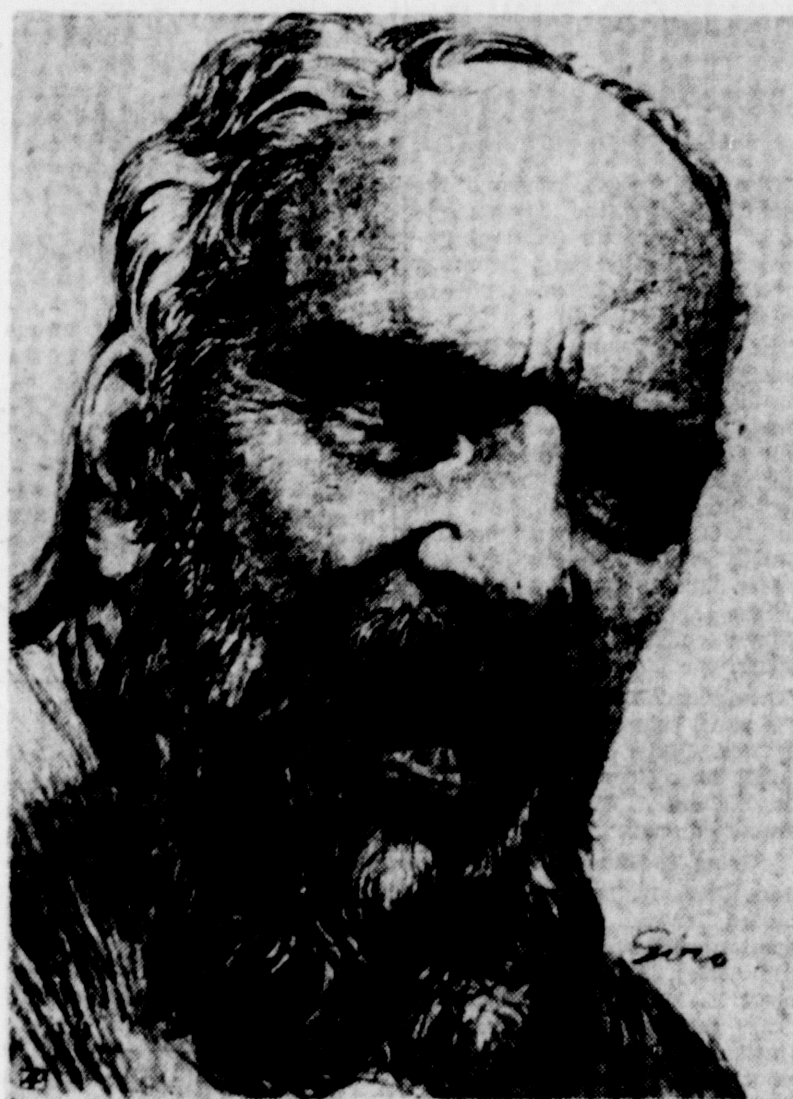

Peter covered his face with his hands, his nails digging into his flesh. What a desecration he had made of the mighty commission the Master had given him then. The words tumbled back on him:

"Thou Art Peter"

"I say also unto thee that thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build My church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

But he, Peter, the big, brusque, stalwart leader of the 12, had collapsed like rotten timber when the gale struck, when the peril came, when club-wielding soldiers swarmed the garden and tied up Christ like a thief.

With the others, he had fled in craven alarm, and then furtively followed to the scene of the Master's trial before the Sanhedrin.

PETER
A personality study by Guy Rowe.

Caught lurking at the door, he went sick with fright at the suspicious questions.

"Aren't you one of them?" they kept demanding. "Weren't you with Him?"

"I Know Him Not"

"Man, I am not! . . . I know not what thou sayest . . . I know Him not!"

At that moment, across the room, the bruise-marked Jesus turned and gazed at him silently. Peter went to pieces, crying, hurling oaths into the night. Too late, too late!

Just a few hours before, when they all supped in the upper room and Jesus spoke forebodingly of coming death and of Peter denying Him, the roughshod, impetuous fisherman had sworn he'd never do it—never!

"Even if I should die with Thee, I should not deny Thee in any way!" he had vowed. "Lord, with Thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death!"

Choked With Memories

But he had failed, miserably, anxious only for his own life, a weakling with no sap for his life, a weakling with no sap in him like the weeds of the sea; he had disowned the truth the Lord had given him, the truth that he had possessed.

Oh, man of little faith, sounding your own trumpet of hollow courage, your vaunted high resolves crashing on the hidden shoals of self-concern and sudden human frailty.

Peter stared numbly at the ground.

His mind choked with memories—the lift that had sprung in his heart at the Master's call, of the fresh, singing vista of life opened to him, the miracles of love, kindness, humility—they buy more than gold.

The voice came back to him, like a never-dying echo: "Blessed are the merciful . . . the pure in heart . . . the peacemakers . . . those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake . . . Do good to them that hate you . . ."

Remembers His Call

The wonder of it had saturated the rustic Peter, enthralled his life, taken him away from his work, his home and his wife in Capernaum, given him a new, overwhelming mission as he traveled with Jesus the road of tenderness.

He had responded instantly when the Master summoned him. He and his fishing partners had been readied for it by the teachings of John the Baptist. So there was no hesitation, only a startled gratitude, a quick willingness.

At times, all of them had blundered—their petty, fool-hardy arguments over who would be first in the Lord's kingdom, their cringing fear in the storm at sea, Peter's vain attempt to walk on water only to lose heart and sink.

Often, Jesus had to set them straight, to put their values aright, and shore up their convictions. But Jesus had thought, finally, that they would hold fast—even under stress, even though "sifted like wheat."

Had Shared Bread

Like the sealing of a bond, He had divided the loaf at the meal last night and shared it with them, calling it His body, and passed the wine, His blood "shed for many." You, He told them, are the light of the world.

But they had dashed it to shame. They had dozed in the garden—when they would have watched. They had run, cowered and denied. Peter's head hung heavy, his body leaden. For him night didn't end as the sun rose that day.

From far off, he watched the crucifixion until he could watch no longer.

Whither now, "rock"? Back to the nets? Back to the Galilee lake to cast for the gray mullet and the blenny before the Jordan carries them down to death in the salt of the Dead Sea? No longer a "fisher of men?"

Then it came back to him, faint-

Philadelphian Is Called Best Dressed

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A Philadelphia miss in minx stole was adjudged the best dressed woman in a chill "pre-Easter Parade" on the Boardwalk here on Sunday.

Miss Delcie Treblow of Philadelphia, won the top honors among 12 women picked by three judges who toured the Boardwalk in rolling chairs. The 12 voted Miss Treblow the best dressed among them.

Besides the stole, which was highly utilitarian in the biting north wind and 38 degree temperature, she wore a suit of deep thistle material, a large brimmed hat of various shades of lavender and black accessories.

Miss Treblow and the others were chosen from a crowd of 25,000 which turned out for the annual Palm Sunday event.

ly at first, ever so faintly, but with a rising beat, the Master's unworried knowledge, "All ye will fall away . . . The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak . . . But let not your hearts be troubled." The words—the significance—pounded in Peter's veins. "Ye shall be scattered . . . and shall leave Me alone, and yet I am not alone because the Father is with Me . . ."

"It is expedient for you that I go away . . . I go to prepare a place for you . . . Ye shall weep . . . but your sorrow shall be turned into joy . . . Abide in Me, and I in you . . . I am the vine, and ye are the branches . . . In the world, ye shall have tribulations, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world!"

A great warmth flowed over Peter. Even in his ignominy, the Lord understood and pardoned, not once, not seven times, but seventy times seven, a Lord undaunted by denial and death. So, too, Peter breathed his own stinging hurricane, and the Lord's unshakeable assurance abode in him.

A rocklike pillar of faith, he spread a foundation for Christ that spread across three continents. It is said he himself was crucified in Rome, head downward at his request in obedience to his Lord, the Friend Who had told him, "Greater love has no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend."

YOUNG BRIDE'S HUBBY NABBED ON TWO COUNTS

NEW YORK (AP)—A high school art teacher has been charged with abduction and assault in his secret marriage to a petite brunette student half his age.

George Wald, 34, was arrested yesterday after the parents of Sydney Silverman, 17, found out the two eloped last Jan. 9. It was his third marriage.

"Don't worry, honey, this is only a dream," Wald told his teenage bride. "Being with you is worth a night in jail."

"I love him and I'll stick with him," Sydney sobbed.

Police said the six-foot, 235-pound teacher and his former student were married at Elkton, Md. They have seen each other only on weekends because they feared to tell her family.

Growing tired of his lonely life, Wald decided to tell Sydney's parents the secret.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Albert Scialfani gave this account of what Wald did:

Has Two Children

He went to his bride's Brooklyn home, waved the marriage certificate and announced, "She's my wife—I want her home with me."

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Silverman, called police.

Lack of parental consent and alleged falsification of the girl's age in the marriage license application were involved.

"She's only a baby—she's a man who's been married twice," protested Silverman.

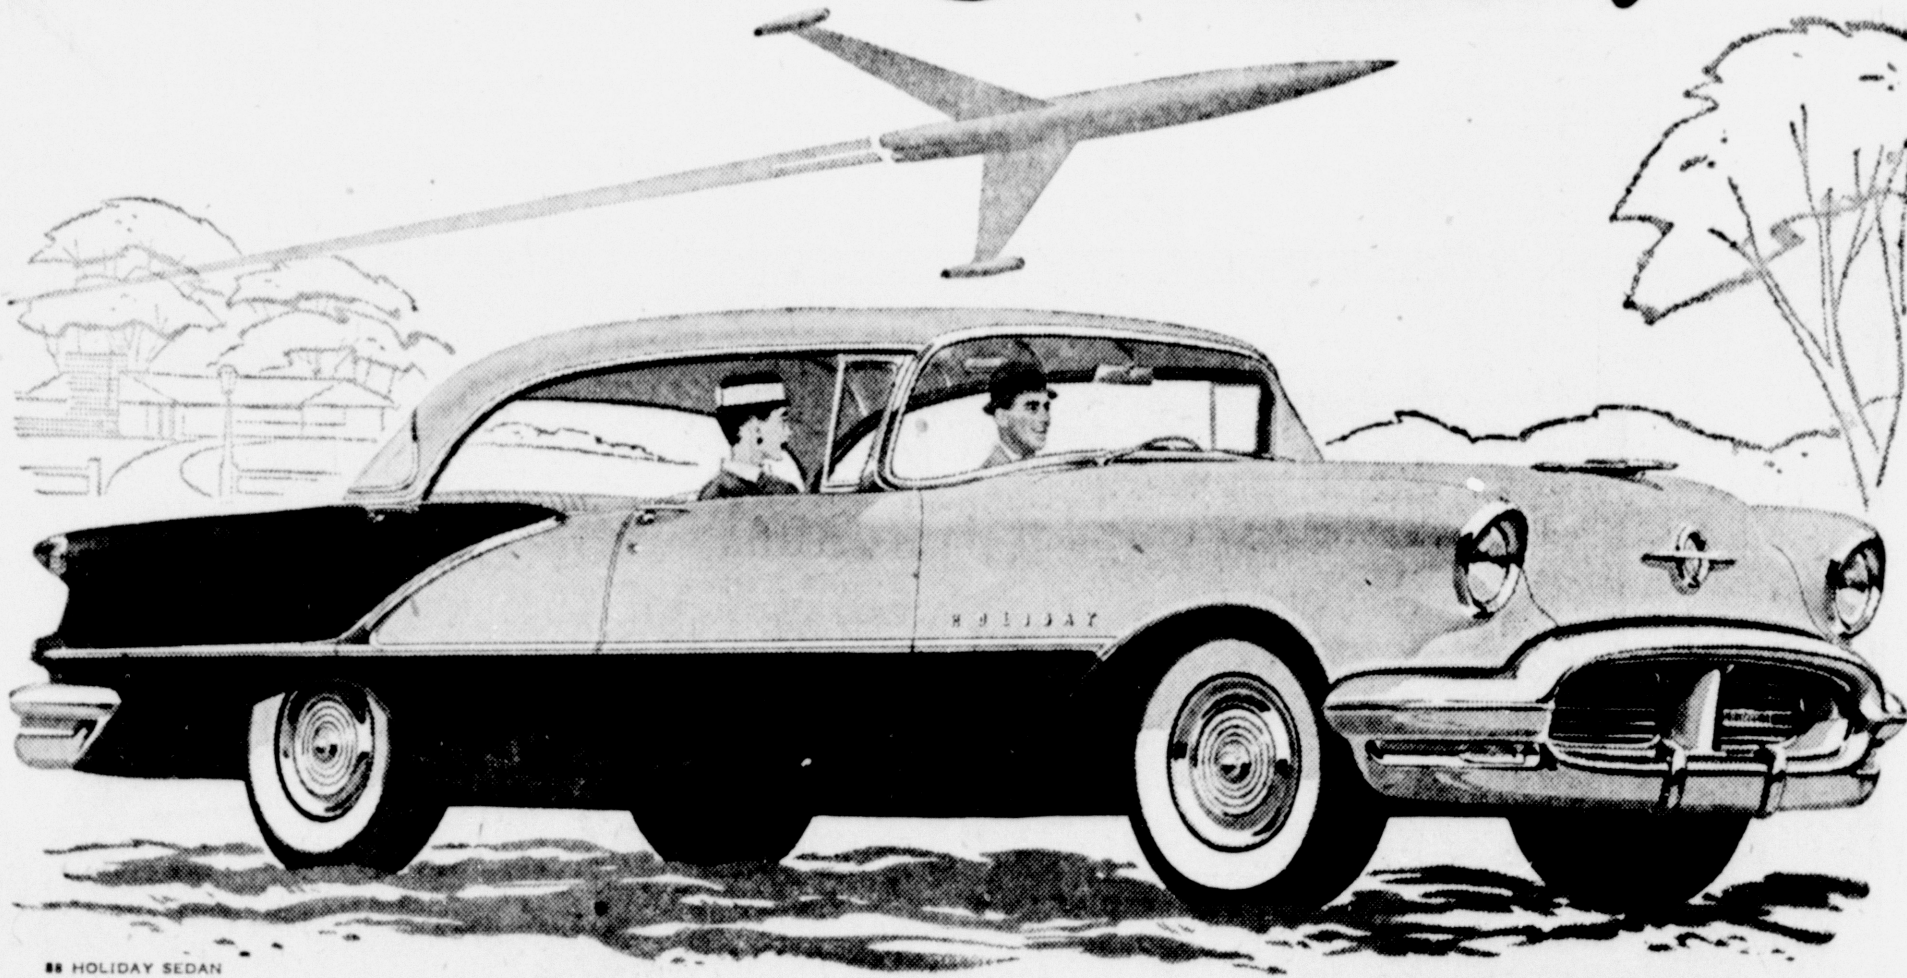

Sydney said she met Wald while he was a teacher and she a student at Manhattan's Industrial Arts High School. At first she turned down his requests for a date but finally agreed on graduation night last June. They were engaged in August.

Sydney is now a secretary for the Boy Scouts.

Wald has two children, 7 and 9, by his first wife, who died in 1949. He was divorced from his second wife in 1953 after eight months of marriage.

U.S. farms had 50,000 farm autos in 1910; 4,400,000 in 1952.

Says Bonus Rule Can Hurt Bucs' Chances

FT. MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Manager Bobby Bragan of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who has three bonus pitchers on his roster, feels that the bonus rule may hurt his team's chances of climbing from the National League cellar.

Bragan says he has "a couple borderline pitchers" who "could help me more than Hollywood," the Pirates' Pacific Coast League affiliate. But because the bonus rule forces him to keep his three bonus babies he may have to farm the three "borderline" pitchers to Hollywood.

"These three bonus pitchers don't even have to show whether they can or can't pitch. I just don't like bonus players on my team," Bragan said.

KLUSZEWSKI MAY BE LEFT BEHIND IN FLA.

PORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs threatened today to leave Ted Kluszewski, the club's big slugger, behind when the team begins its northward trek next Monday.

"Klu's just starting spring training right now," Tebbetts said. "He is taking light workouts and coming along pretty good. But he says it still hurts him to swing and his thigh is all taped up. When we break camp, there's a strong probability that Klu will be left either in Tampa or in one of our minor league camps in Douglas, Ga."

Kluszewski was hurt the second day of training, swinging in batting practice. Until March 19 he did not appear in the lineup. Off that date, he tried it for three innings against the Pirates.

"He was struggling so hard I decided to get some competent medical man to tell him it wouldn't hurt him to keep playing," said Tebbetts.

Kluszewski was sent to see Dr. George Bennett of John Hopkins Hospital, who was vacationing in the Florida Keys.

"Dr. Bennett diagnosed the injury as a pulled muscle deep in the hip," Birdie said. "He said it was an injury common to athletes and assured us while it was painful and aggravating, it wasn't serious and certainly not permanent. He prescribed wet packs, massages and light workouts which should be increased gradually."

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—Lanky left-hander Arthur Murray has been sent down from the Pittsburgh Pirates training camp at Fort Myers, Fla., the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League announced today.

Murray is en route to California and will join the Stars in a few days. He pitched relief last season for New Orleans and Williamsport, Pa.

PITCHING DEAL BACKFIRES FOR LANE AND CARDS

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Spring exhibition games don't count in the races for pennants, but they sure can be tough on general managers waiting for the results of winter trades. Ask Frank Lane.

The first trade Lane put together as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals—after gaining fame with his bartering business for the Chicago White Sox—backfired right off the bat.

Pitching has been the big "if" for the Cards for a couple of seasons; they couldn't find anybody who could go nine innings and win, and what was worse, they couldn't find anybody to call in from the bullpen.

Lawrence's Second Win

Lane was aware of the pitching failures when he took over and so he sent Brooks Lawrence, bothered by an ulcer and a high earned run average, to Cincinnati for Jackie Collum, a Card of the pre-Lane era.

So what happens? Lawrence ran into his old mates for the first time yesterday. He graciously gave up 10 hits and three walks, but snapped off their six-game winning streak 3-1 while going nine innings for the first time this spring.

It was Lawrence's second victory without defeat in four exhibition starts.

White Sox Level Boxer

Collum, by the way, has appeared in three games for the Cards so far—for a 0-1 record.

A bases-loaded, two-out error by Card shortstop Alex Grammas—muffing Lawrence's tap—sent two Reddies runs across in the seventh. It might also be noted that Larry Doby, acquired from Cleveland for Chico Carrasquel in a winter deal executed by Chuck Comiskey after Lane's departure, continued to connect with his bat as the White Sox leveled the Boston Red Sox 9-2.

Doby, enjoying one of his finest springs, rapped home the first Chicago run with a triple and added a single to boost his average to .419.

Yankees Clobbered

The Brooklyn Dodgers followed the pattern they set in trimming the New York Yankees in last fall's World Series, and clobbered the Bronx Bombers 15-7 after losing the first two games of their spring series. Maury McDermott, involved in the Yankees' winter trade with Washington, was rapped for 11 runs in the second inning.

Ray Crone of the Milwaukee Braves was tagged for four runs in three innings as the Pittsburgh Pirates won 16-9. Dale Long drove in five Buc runs with a double, triple and homer.

Del Ennis walloped a grand-slam homer in a five-run fifth that gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers.

Johnny Antonelli allowed only four hits while going seven innings for the first time this season as the New York Giants poured it all, Baltimore 14-1.

The Chicago Cubs dumped the Cleveland Indians 9-5 with Warren Hacker pitching shutout ball for six innings.

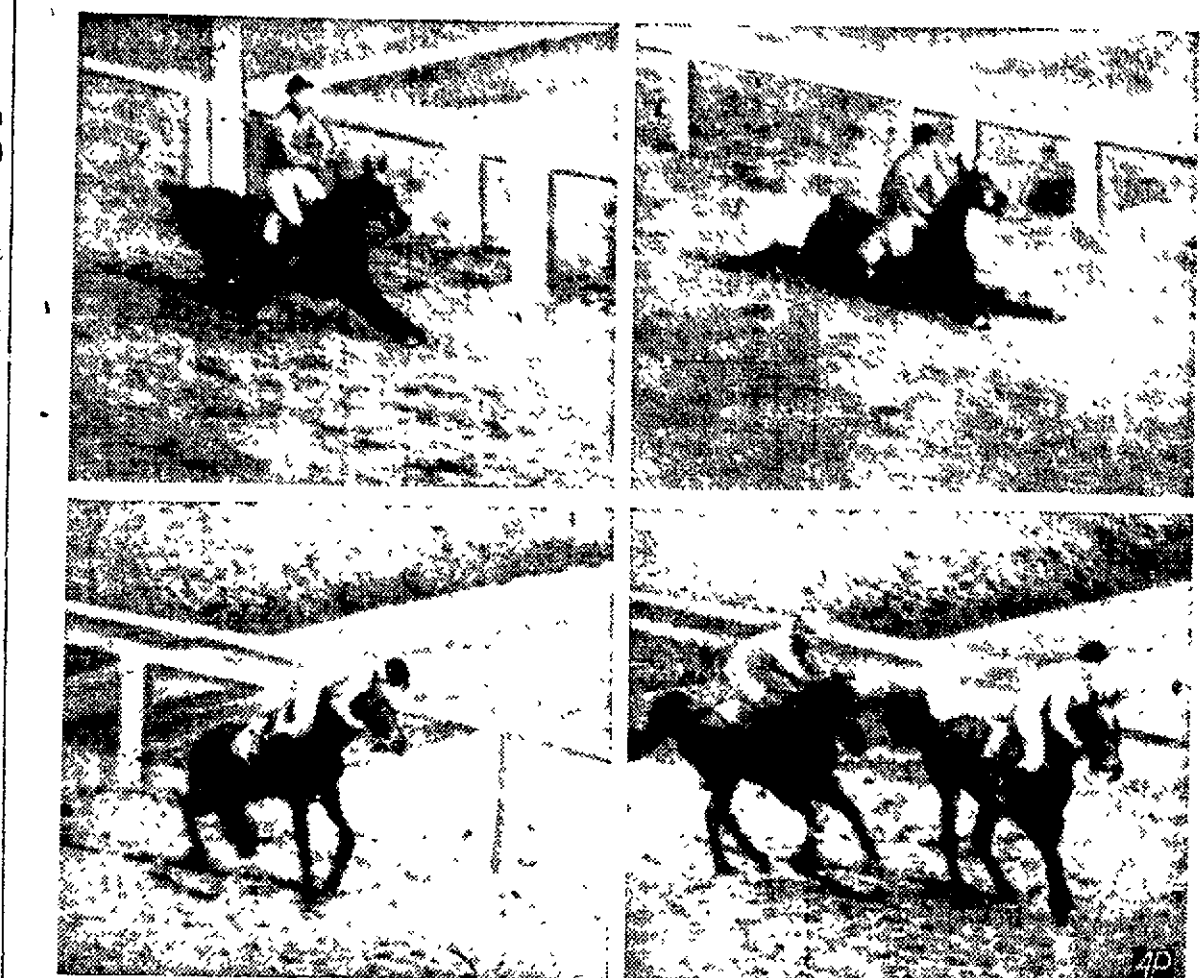

SOLONS TO PAY CHAMPS TRIBUTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Palmerston and Fountain Hill High Schools would be commended for winning PIAA basketball titles under resolutions submitted to the House by two eastern Pennsylvania lawmakers.

Palmerston, Cass A. eastern basketball champion, defeated Farrell 57-45 in the state title game last Saturday at the Hershey Sports Center. The game was the first of the state championship series.

SAYS HOGAN IS AFTER TITLES AGAIN IN 1956

NEW YORK (AP)—The man who turned the professional golf tour into a gold mine came home from Florida today with the report that the "Beat Hogan" chant is back as No. 1 on the golfers' hit parade.

"The forty-and-over club is in the saddle again," said Fred Corcoran, former tournament director of the Professional Golfers' Assn., and still an advisor, "and Ben Hogan is the keenest and sharpest of the lot."

Hogan, announced after a playoff loss in the 1955 National Open that he'd never seriously work for a championship again.

"Ben has been practicing a solid month at the Seminole Club in Palm Beach," Fred said.

Practicing 8 Hours Daily

The PGA official said he had watched Hogan play at the Bahamas Country Club in Nassau recently. "He shot a 64."

"At Seminole, he had rounds of 69-73 for 142," Corcoran said. "He looked great. He looked lean and eager, after a winter's rest. And that old fire and determination weren't missing, either. This didn't look like a man resigned to golf-for-fun for the rest of his life."

"They say Ben is practicing eight hours a day, just as he used to do. The golfers now on tour are getting a little nervous again. They figure Hogan is going to be around for the big ones."

LOWRY MAKES POOR SHOWING

NEW YORK (AP)—It will be a long, long time before Pat Lowry, whose rave notices said he carried dynamite in his gloves, gets another television shot in St. Nicholas Arena.

Lowry entered the ring against Larry Baker, an unknown from Mount Vernon, N. Y., last night. It should have been nothing more than a brick workout or Lowry, who had knocked out 28 opponents in the process of piling up a 40-9 record.

But it was Baker who made what fight there was. He piled in right from the start and was the whole show until Referee Pete Scalzo stepped it after 47 seconds of the eighth round of the scheduled 10.

A few seconds earlier, Baker had sent Lowry to the canvas with a solid right cross. Lowry took a nine-count, got up, wobbled, around a little, took a few more blows, then watched placidly as Scalzo stepped between the two. Baker weighed 147, Lowry 149.

Contempt Charges Urged For McCoy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Contempt charges against Los Angeles "machinist" Babe McCoy are being sought by James Cox, head of a special committee investigating boxing in California.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Contempt charges against Los Angeles "machinist" Babe McCoy are being sought by James Cox, head of a special committee investigating boxing in California.

"As far as I'm concerned, McCoy is in contempt of this hearing for having failed to make his appearance available on this date (Monday) in the office of his attorney," as he was ordered by Judge John J. Ford. Cox said as he prepared for today's contempt hearing.

When Watson Jones, former California state light-heavyweight champion, testified yesterday that McCoy fought four fights three months ago, McCoy's attorneys argued that the October 1955 fight was a "kiddie" fight and that McCoy was 12 according to a newspaper account.

GENE CONLEY'S FUTURE SEEMS VERY DOUBTFUL

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—The future of Gene Conley, 6-foot-8 right-handed ace of the Milwaukee pitching staff, remained a question mark today after his shoulder trouble was pinpointed as "chronic tendinitis."

Complete rest, heat treatment and medication were prescribed to the 25-year-old pitcher pending another examination Thursday.

Conley can dress in uniform and run in the outfield but must not throw a ball.

3-Hour Checkup

Dr. Michael Di Cosola would give no opinion on the pitcher's future. He gave Conley a comprehensive three-hour examination of his back and right shoulder yesterday. Multiple X-rays were taken.

After Conley simulated the pitching motion, he was given heat treatment and an injection that alleviated the pain. Dr. Di Cosola was confident he had hit the right spot.

"All we can do is just wait and see what happens," said Manager Charlie Grimm.

The shoulder trouble popped up last week after Conley had appeared in two exhibition games. He was effective in a three-inning stint against Brooklyn but was hit hard by the New York Yankees in another three-inning tour. After the Yankee game he reported a recurrence of the pain in the shoulder that sidelined him last season.

In 1955 Conley had won 11 games by All-Star Game time but failed to win again. He tore ligaments in the shoulder while pitching at Brooklyn in late July and finally retired for the season Aug. 13.

Says Bonus Rule Can Hurt Bucs' Chances

FT. MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Manager Bobby Bragan of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who has three bonus pitchers on his roster, feels that the bonus rule may hurt his team's chances of climbing from the National League cellar.

Bragan says he has "a couple borderline pitchers" who "could help me more than Hollywood," the Pirates' Pacific Coast League affiliate. But because the bonus rule forces him to keep his three bonus babies he may have to farm the three "borderline" pitchers to Hollywood.

"These three bonus pitchers don't even have to show whether they can or can't pitch. I just don't like bonus players on my team," Bragan said.

KLUSZEWSKI MAY BE LEFT BEHIND IN FLA.

PORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs threatened today to leave Ted Kluszewski, the club's big slugger, behind when the team begins its northward trek next Monday.

"Klu's just starting spring training right now," Tebbetts said. "He is taking light workouts and coming along pretty good. But he says it still hurts him to swing and his thigh is all taped up. When we break camp, there's a strong probability that Klu will be left either in Tampa or in one of our minor league camps in Douglas, Ga."

Kluszewski was hurt the second day of training, swinging in batting practice. Until March 19 he did not appear in the lineup. On that date, he tried it for three innings against the Pirates.

"He was struggling so hard I decided to get some competent medical man to tell him it wouldn't hurt him to keep playing," said Tebbetts.

Kluszewski was sent to see Dr. George Bennett of John Hopkins Hospital, who was vacationing in the Florida Keys.

"Dr. Bennett diagnosed the injury as a pulled muscle deep in the hip," Birdie said. "He said it was an injury common to athletes and assured us while it was painful and aggravating, it wasn't serious and certainly not permanent. He prescribed wet packs, massages and light workouts which should be increased gradually."

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—Lanky left-hander Arthur Murray has been sent down from the Pittsburgh Pirates training camp at Fort Myers, Fla., the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League announced today.

Murray is en route to California and will join the Stars in a few days. He pitched relief last season for New Orleans and Williamsport, Pa.

PITCHING DEAL BACKFIRES FOR LANE AND CARDS

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Spring exhibition games don't count in the races for pennants, but they sure can be tough on general managers waiting for the results of winter trades. Ask Frank Lane.

The first trade Lane put together as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals—after gaining fame with his bartering business for the Chicago White Sox—backfired right off the bat.

Pitching has been the big "if" for the Cards for a couple of seasons; they couldn't find anybody who could go nine innings and win, and what was worse, they couldn't find anybody to call in from the bullpen.

Lawrence's Second Win
Lane was aware of the pitching failures when he took over and so he sent Brooks Lawrence, bothered by an ulcer and a high earned run average, to Cincinnati for Jackie Collum, a Card of the pre-Lane era.

So what happens? Lawrence ran into his old mates for the first time yesterday. He graciously gave up 10 hits and three walks, but snapped off their six-game winning streak 3-1 while going nine innings for the first time this spring.

It was Lawrence's second victory without defeat in four exhibition starts.

White Sox Level Box
Collum, by the way, has appeared in three games for the Cards so far—for a 0-1 record.

A bases-loaded, two-out error by Card shortstop Alex Grammas—muffing Lawrence's tap—sent Ted Doby, runner across in the seventh, home. All four teams of the league, Glenn L. Bream Garage, Lions, Moose and Rotary, will take part in a twin bill that afternoon. The full schedule will be announced in the near future.

Doby, enjoying one of his finest springs, rapped home the first Chicago run with a triple and added a single to boost his average to .419.

Yankees Clobbered
The Brooklyn Dodgers followed the pattern they set in trimming the New York Yankees in last fall's World Series, and clobbered the Bronx Bombers 15-7 after losing the first two games of their spring series. Maury McDermott, involved in the Yankees' winter trade with Washington, was rapped for 11 runs in the second inning.

Ray Crone of the Milwaukee Braves was tagged for four runs in three innings as the Pittsburgh Pirates won 16-9. Dale Long drove in five Buc runs with a double, triple and homer.

Del Ennis walked a grand-slam homer in a five-run fifth that gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers.

Johnny Antonelli allowed only four hits while going seven innings for the first time this season as the New York Giants poured it on Baltimore 14-1.

The Chicago Cubs dumped the Cleveland Indians 9-5 with Warren Hacker pitching shutout ball for six innings.

SOLONS TO PAY CHAMPS TRIBUTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Palmerston and Fountain Hill High Schools would be commended for winning PIAA basketball titles under resolutions submitted to the House by two eastern Pennsylvania lawmakers.

Resolutions were presented last night by Rep. Bonner (D-Carbon) to congratulate the spirit and determination of Palmerston and by Reps. Markley and Steckel both Lehigh County Republicans, to commend Fountain Hill.

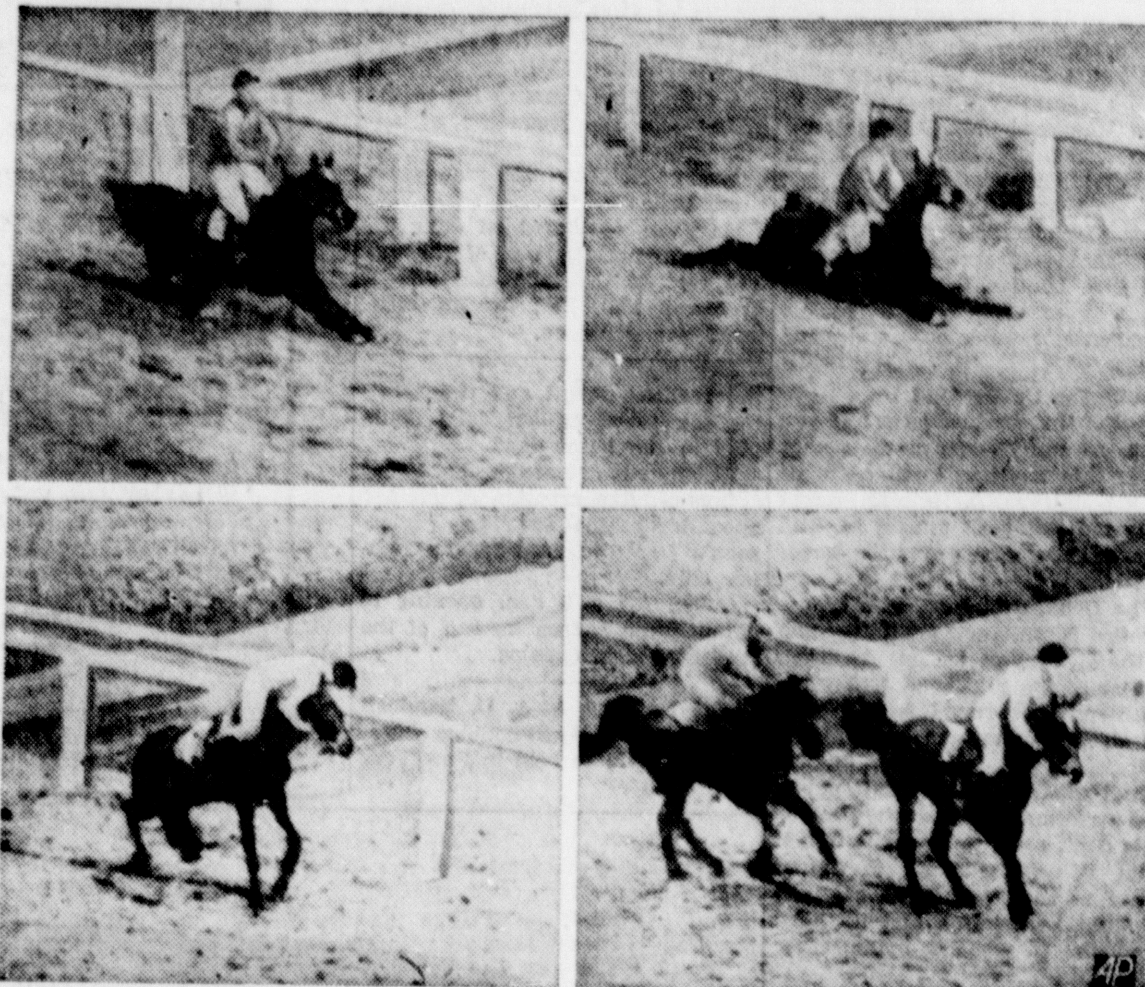

Palmerston, Class A eastern regional champion lost to Farrell, 57-45, in the state title game last Saturday. Fountain Hill beat East Pittsburgh, 63-53, Friday for the state Class B championship.

Bonner's resolution calls Palmerston's eastern regional victory over Radnor last week "a great victory, after a great season, for a truly great team."

The Fountain Hill resolution says "the attainment of the championship for the first time in the school's history after its splendid season record is a tribute to the ability and long hours of practice in which the team engaged."

SEEK BETTER LIGHTS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Better lighting in tunnels of the Pennsylvania Turnpike system would be urged in a resolution passed by the House and ready for Senate action today.

Adopted unanimously by the House last night, the proposal would ask the Turnpike Commission to install a "lighting system of sufficient candlepower to eliminate any blind vision areas while traveling through the tunnels."

When Watson Jones, former California state light-heavyweight champion, testified yesterday he "threw" four fights, three on orders of McCoy, matchmaker at the Olympic Auditorium, the list of allegedly "fixed" fights rose to 12, according to witnesses' statements.

SAYS HOGAN IS AFTER TITLES AGAIN IN 1956

NEW YORK (AP)—The man who turned the professional golf tour into a gold mine came home from Florida today with the report that the "Beat Hogan" chant is back as No. 1 on the golfers' hit parade.

"The forty-and-over club is in the saddle again," said Fred Corcoran, former tournament director of the Professional Golfers' Assn., and still an advisor, "and Ben Hogan is the keenest and sharpest of the lot."

Hogan, announced after a playoff loss in the 1955 National Open that he'd never seriously work for a championship again.

"Ben has been practicing a solid month at the Seminole Club in Palm Beach," Fred said.

Practicing 8 Hours Daily
The PGA official said he had watched Hogan play at the Bahamas Country Club in Nassau recently. "He shot a 64."

"At Seminole, he had rounds of 69-73 for 142," Corcoran said. "He looked great. He looked lean and eager, after a winter's rest. And that old fire and determination weren't missing, either. This didn't look like a man resigned to golf-for-fun for the rest of his life."

"They say Ben is practicing eight hours a day, just as he used to do. The golfers now on tour are getting a little nervous again. They figure Hogan is going to be around for the big ones."

TOPPAZZINI IS TOPS IN SCORING

NEW YORK (AP)—Zellio Toppazzini of the Providence Reds won scoring championship for the 1955-56 season with 113 points, according to final figures released today.

The 26-year-old winger, who played in all 64 of his team's games, collected 42 goals and 71 assists. Pittsburgh's Willie Marshall finished second with 97 points, followed by Camille Henry of Providence with 91.

Henry scored the most goals, 50, and Toppazzini's 71 assists topped the playmakers. Jack Blonda of Pittsburgh was the penalty leader with 190 minutes.

Pittsburgh's Gil Mayer captured goaltending honors for the fourth straight season, allowing 151 goals in 56 games for an average of 2.70.

Meanwhile Toppazzini and the Reds open the Calder Cup competition tonight when they play host to Buffalo. The second series, pitting Cleveland against Pittsburgh, opens at Pittsburgh Thursday.

DEFENSE IN GAVIN'S CASE NOT SETTLED

BARTOW, Fla. (P) — Clarke Gavin, whose murder case goes before the grand jury today, has given no line on his defense.

He talked Sunday with a Bartow lawyer, Robert B. Huffaker, but Huffaker said he is merely an "interim attorney" until Gavin's parents arrive and employ regular defense counsel.

Gavin, 24, is held in county jail here on a first degree murder charge, accused of shooting Anthony McBride, 23, last Wednesday night. Both men were students at Florida Southern College in Lakeland and worked together as bellhops at night.

Gavin is from Northport, N.Y., and McBride came from Haverstown, Pa.

Gives No Reason

Police said Gavin admitted shooting McBride but gave no reason. State Atty. Gunter Stephenson said he has not determined the motive.

Another student, Jack Graff, who witnessed the shooting, said he believes Gavin was afraid McBride was going to give him away to police or try to make a grab for the pistol with which Gavin was threatening anyone who told on him.

At that time police were looking for Gavin in the wounding of still another student March 13. Gavin was expelled after that incident but continued to live in his off-campus apartment.

Surfacing Program Will Begin Soon

HARRISBURG (P)—Secretary of Highways Joseph J. Lawler said Monday his department will resume a $24,219,735 surfacing program in all counties "as soon as the weather permits."

The program, covering the 1955-57 fiscal period, will extend into all counties of the commonwealth with work done by department forces and private contractors, Lawler said.

"It is planned to resume the full extent of the winter breakup is measured," the secretary declared.

He added a "considerable" portion of the biennial allocation was spent during 1955 but the major portion will be needed to repair roads damaged by this winter's cold weather.

Considerable work remains to be done, Lawler asserted, in some northeastern counties hard hit by last August's hurricanes. Many of those roads were given only emergency repairs last year.

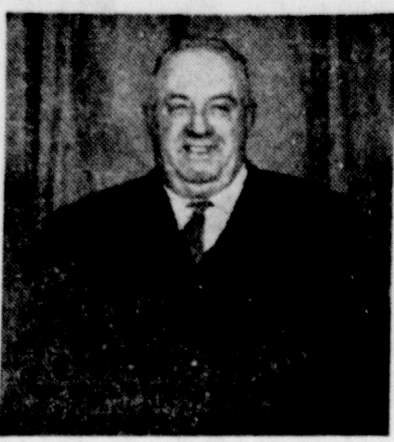

Resurfacing will be done by covering existing roads with a new top of varying thicknesses depending on the traffic load. Non-skid surfaces will be placed on hills and curves, the department said.

DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS TOLD ABOUT RECORD

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (P)—The Democratic National Committee has just told the Democratic leaders in Congress, in effect, they're not doing enough to build a record for the party against the Republicans in this campaign year.

Paul M. Butler, committee chairman and therefore the party's pilot in the campaign, has written to some congressional Democrats a letter which he said reflects the committee's wishes.

It went to the two Texans who are the Democrats' leaders in House and Senate—Speaker Sam Rayburn and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, who has been mentioned as a possible presidential candidate — and some others.

Put Up Or Shut Up

It was this kind of letter: If you don't put up, we may have to shut up. If this was ever intended to be strictly intraparty, private correspondence it didn't remain so. The letter became public over the weekend.

The Democrats have been accusing the Eisenhower administration of the giveaway of natural resources ever since the middle of 1953 when the Republican-run Congress gave the oil-rich submerged lands to the states.

That was not entirely a Republican performance. And the Democrats don't seem to be saying much about it now although they said plenty at the time. Some of them did, that is, Johnson and Rayburn voted for it. So did many other Democrats.

The Democrats have been running Congress since the beginning of 1955. With the Republicans in control of the White House and the executive branch of the government, the Democrats naturally look to their leaders in Congress to set a party record for the next election and point up, if not create, the issues.

Fear Weak Position

This would be expected in the field of natural resources since the Democrats have been banging away at the Republicans on the "give-away" theme for years. But in his letter Butler wrote:

"I am fearful that our party and its nominees for president, vice president, the Senate and the House next fall may be in a very weak position on the area of natural resources unless some action is taken to bolster our legislative record in this session of Congress."

Being thus told he's not handling the leadership of the House right may simply anger Rayburn, an old professional in politics. A nudge like this from his own party may pain Johnson, who seems to be growing increasingly sensitive to criticism.

SEE HIGHER FISHING FEES FOR SALARIES

HARRISBURG (P)—Higher salaries for employees may force the State Fish Commission to seek increase revenues, possibly in high license fees, a commission official indicates. William Voight Jr., executive director of the commission, hinted at higher license fees in an address to the closing session of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

"Sportsmen should think seriously of some way to increase the revenue of the Fish commission," Voight said Saturday.

Over Half For Salaries

About 52 per cent of the commission's gross revenue will be earmarked for wages by April 1, he declared, and then pointed to a possible reduction of 50,000 permits in license sales this year. The reduction, he said, will probably result from a new law permitting farmers and tenants to fish in farm ponds without a license.

Pay increases totaling $21,000 were approved for about 300 employees of the commission last week. Voight said further pay proposals are still before the executive board.

Pay Scales "Pitiful"

Three years ago the Legislature authorized a 50-cent boost in license fees which brings in about $347,000 yearly. The House Conservation and Wildlife Committee, investigating what it called "pitiful" commission pay scales, said the boost was intended to better salaries although the increases were never granted.

In a business session the federation, which represents about 180,000 sportsmen in affiliated clubs, called on the State Game Commission to extend the open season on squirrels and grouse this fall to five weeks instead of the usual four.

Game Fund Surpluses Up

The federation endorsed a "hunter's choice" season of one month for archery deer hunting but voted down two resolutions that would have urged the commission to declare a regular "hunter's choice" deer season. Both doe and buck would be legal during such a season. Presently separate seasons are held for each.

Another resolution adopted asked for a "clear cut statement as to

Youth Jailed On Charge Of Homicide

NEW YORK, March 26 (P)—A 20-year-old youth who has been in trouble in Pennsylvania, is in jail on a homicide charge today in the fatal shooting of an 18-year-old companion last Friday night.

Robert May, 20, of Jackson Heights, Queens, displayed no emotion on Sunday at his arraignment. Magistrate Reuben Levy set April 6 for a hearing.

Det. Morris Reiter said May shot and killed Joseph John Lomuscio of East Elmhurst, Queens, as the latter sat in an automobile in Manhattan.

A dispute over money led to the killing and the wounding of another youth, Ethan Eldon, 17, of Jackson Heights, at the same time, police said.

May was convicted on June 25, 1952, in Lancaster, Pa., of robbery and sent to the Industrial School at Camp Hill, Pa., for an indeterminate sentence.

the reasons, intent and program" for the three million dollar surplus in the game fund.

"It buys a lot more than gasoline"

The price you pay at the pump buys a lot of service as well.

It buys the long hours and hard work of a service station dealer. To serve you properly, this man must have the latest equipment to work with and adequate stock to sell. He must have financial stability in order to plan ahead.

If he can buy his gasoline at low cost and sell it at a reasonable profit, he can give good service and maintain his stock of automotive necessities. If he can't, his stock declines and his service to the motoring public suffers.

That is why the price policy of The Atlantic Refining Company includes a recommendation of suggested minimum retail prices to assure the dealer a reasonable profit.

In this way, motorists who stop at the Atlantic sign can be certain they will get high-quality products plus high-quality service at a reasonable price. It all adds up to today's big motoring value.

Negro Shot, Two White Men Beaten When Segregation Violence Erupts In South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scattered violence and a declaration that the South is not bluffing in its determination to win a legal reversal of the U.S. Supreme Court decisions highlighted the tense segregation scene on Sunday.

At Pensacola, Fla., about 100 Negroes attacked and beat two white men after a Negro was shot, and in Atlanta five Negroes escaped, injury when an explosion damaged a home in the northwest section into which they moved last Friday.

The Pensacola incident developed in a predominantly Negro section while two Pensacola white men, Johnnie J. Maloy, 50, and Hillary Calhoun, 41, were selling oranges from a truck.

Sheriff's deputies said Maloy accused a Negro of stealing a crate of oranges, drew a gun and fired twice. A bullet struck Foster King, a 34-year-old Negro, in the leg.

Two Whites Beaten

Deputies said Love Andrews, 29-year-old Negro, took the gun away from Maloy and then other Negroes swarmed over both men. Maloy suffered a brain concussion and a compound fracture of the leg. Andrews was held without bond on a charge of affray. Calhoun was arrested on the same charge and then freed under $100 bond.

The Atlanta explosion occurred in a predominantly white section where some homes have been sold to Negroes. A similar blast was reported Feb. 25 in the same area.

Police did not determine what caused the blast which shattered part of the foundation of the frame structure and tore a hole in the living room floor. A white neighbor whose home suffered minor damage told police three Negro adults and two children moved out of the house with their belongings about five hours after the explosion.

Congressional Threats

In Washington, Sen. Stennis (D-Miss) said one purpose of a manifesto signed by 101 Southern senators and House members was to alert all sections of the nation to what he called Southern determination to win a legal reversal of the Supreme Court decrees outlawing segregation in the schools.

"People in other sections of the nation think we are bluffing about this," he said in a TV interview. "We are not bluffing."

The Mississippi Democrat said there was "lots of room" for enactment of a constitutional amendment to permit continued racial segregation in the public schools but did not indicate such a move is planned.

In another radio debate on the issue, Rep. Forrester (D-Ga) insisted the Supreme Court's decision outlawing segregation is "illegal" and called the Southern manifesto an "immortal" document.

Rep. Keating (R-NY) said it seemed to him "ridiculous to claim that a decision of the Supreme Court is illegal" and said the segregation decision "is a good decision and it is one which must be lived up to."

At Brooklyn, N.Y., the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., convicted

Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott leader, told a Concord Baptist Church rally that Negroes in the United States "are not seeking to defeat the white people" but are merely fighting injustice.

Two Serving Terms For Robbery Escape

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Police today searched for two prisoners who escaped from the Delaware County Prison farm at Broadmeadows.

Prison officials said Carl Nelson Jr., 20, of Ridley Twp., and Thomas Kuzar, 19, of Brookhaven, had "hopped a fence" and disappeared while working on the grounds yesterday.

Both men had been sentenced recently to 11 months to five years terms for robbery.

Continuance of their trial so that negotiations might be resumed with Westinghouse. But the Delaware County Court judges voted 3-1 for the trial to start immediately.

William Gross, Westinghouse supervisor of records photography, testified yesterday about films showing picket line violence. He pointed out the nine defendants among a group who last Dec. 8 allegedly interfered with and damaged a truck trying to enter the Lester plant.

DEFENSE IN GAVIN'S CASE NOT SETTLED

BARTOW, Fla. (AP)—Clarke Gavin, whose murder case goes before the grand jury today, has given no line on his defense.

He talked Sunday with a Bartow lawyer, Robert B. Huffaker, but Huffaker said he is merely an "interim attorney" until Gavin's parents arrive and employ regular defense counsel.

Gavin, 24, is held in county jail here on a first degree murder charge, accused of shooting Anthony McBride, 23, last Wednesday night. Both men were students at Florida Southern College in Lakeland and worked together as bellhops at night.

Gavin is from Northport, N.Y., and McBride came from Haver-town, Pa.

Gives No Reason

Police said Gavin "admitted shooting McBride but gave no reason, State Atty. Gunter Stephenson said he has not determined the motive.

Another student, Jack Graff, who witnessed the shooting, said he believes Gavin was afraid McBride was going to give him away to police or try to make a grab for the pistol with which Gavin was threatening anyone who told on him.

At that time police were looking for Gavin in the wounding of still another student March 13. Gavin was expelled after that incident but continued to live in his off-campus apartment.

Surfacing Program Will Begin Soon

HARRISBURG (AP)—Secretary of Highways Joseph J. Lawler said Monday his department will resume a $24,219,735 surfacing program in all counties "as soon as the weather permits."

The program, covering the 1955-57 fiscal period, will extend into all counties of the commonwealth with work done by department forces and private contractors, Lawler said.

"It is planned to resume the full extent of the winter breakup is measured," the secretary declared.

He added a "considerable" portion of the biennium allocation was spent during 1955 but the major portion will be needed to repair roads damaged by this winter's cold weather.

Considerable work remains to be done, Lawler asserted, in some northeastern counties hard hit by last August's hurricanes. Many of those roads were given only emergency repairs last year.

Resurfacing will be done by covering existing roadways with a new top of varying thicknesses depending on the traffic load. Non-skid surfaces will be placed on hills and curves, the department said.

Laurel race track is 20 miles from Washington and Baltimore.

DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS TOLD ABOUT RECORD

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic National Committee has just told the Democratic leaders in Congress, in effect, they're not doing enough to build a record for the party against the Republicans in this campaign year.

Paul M. Butler, committee chairman and therefore the party's pilot in the campaign, has written to some congressional Democrats a letter which he said reflects the committee's wishes.

It went to the two Texans who are the Democrats' leaders in House and Senate—Speaker Sam Rayburn and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, who has been mentioned as a possible presidential candidate — and some others.

Put Up Or Shut Up

It was this kind of letter: If you don't put up, we may have to shut up. If this was ever intended to be strictly intraparty, private correspondence it didn't remain so. The letter became public over the weekend.

The Democrats have been accusing the Eisenhower administration of the giveaway of natural resources ever since the middle of 1953 when the Republican-run Congress gave the oil-rich submerged lands to the states.

That was not entirely a Republican performance. And the Democrats don't seem to be saying much about it now although they said plenty at the time. Some of them did, that is, Johnson and Rayburn voted for it. So did many other Democrats.

The Democrats have been running Congress since the beginning of 1955. With the Republicans in control of the White House and the executive branch of the government, the Democrats naturally look to their leaders in Congress to set a party record for the next election and point up, if not create, the issues.

Fear Weak Position

This would be expected in the field of natural resources since the Democrats have been banging away at the Republicans on the "give-away" theme for years. But in his letter Butler wrote:

"I am fearful that our party and its nominees for president, vice president, the Senate and the House next fall may be in a very weak position on the area of natural resources unless some action is taken to bolster our legislative record in this session of Congress.

Being thus told he's not handling the leadership of the House right may simply anger Rayburn, an old professional in politics. A nudge like this from his own party may pain Johnson, who seems to be growing increasingly sensitive to criticism.

SEE HIGHER FISHING FEES FOR SALARIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Higher salaries for employees may force the State Fish Commission to seek increase revenues, possibly in high license fees, a commission official indicates.

William Voight Jr., executive director of the commission, hinted at higher license fees in an address to the closing session of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

"Sportsmen should think seriously of some way to increase the revenue of the fish commission," Voight said Saturday.

Over Half For Salaries

About 52 per cent of the commission's gross revenue will be earmarked for wages by April 1, he declared, and then pointed to a possible reduction of 50,000 permits in license sales this year.

The reduction, he said, will probably result from a new law permitting farmers and tenants to fish in farm ponds without a license.

Pay increases totaling $21,000 were approved for about 300 employees of the commission last week. Voigt said further pay proposals are still before the executive board.

Pay Scales "Pitiful"

Three years ago the Legislature authorized a 50-cent boost in license fees which brings in about $347,000 yearly. The House Conservation and Wildlife Committee, investigating what it called "pitiful" commission pay scales, said the boost was intended to better salaries although the increases were never granted.

In a business session the federation, which represents about 180,000 sportsmen in affiliated clubs, called on the State Game Commission to extend the open season on squirrels and grouse this fall to five weeks instead of the usual four.

Game Fund Surpluses Up

The federation endorsed a "hunter's choice" season of one month for archery deer hunting but voted down two resolutions that would have urged the commission to declare a regular "hunter's choice" deer season. Both doe and buck would be legal during such a season. Presently separate seasons are held for each.

Another resolution adopted asked for a "hunter's choice" statement as to

Youth Jailed On Charge Of Homicide

NEW YORK, March 26 (AP)—A 20-year-old youth who has been in trouble in Pennsylvania, is in jail on a homicide charge today in the fatal shooting of an 18-year-old companion last Friday night.

Robert May, 20, of Jackson Heights, Queens, displayed no emotion on Sunday at his arraignment, Magistrate Reuben Levy set April 6 for a hearing.

Det. Morris Reller said May shot and killed Joseph John Lomuscio of East Elmhurst, Queens, as the latter sat in an automobile in Manhattan.

A dispute over money led to the killing and the wounding of another youth, Ethan Eldon, 17, of Jackson Heights, at the same time, police said.

May was convicted on June 25, 1952, in Lancaster, Pa., of robbery and sent to the Industrial School at Camp Hill, Pa., for an indeterminate sentence.

the reasons, intent and program" for the three million dollar surplus in the game fund.

Resolutions defeated would have: Opposed the creation of further special streams such as Fisherman's Paradise used for fly fishing only.

Called for a 7 a.m. opening of small game season instead of the present 9 a.m. opening.

The National A. A. U. handball four-wall singles and doubles championships will be held in New York May 13-20.

"It buys a lot more than gasoline"

The price you pay at the pump buys a lot of service as well.

It buys the long hours and hard work of a service station dealer. To serve you properly, this man must have the latest equipment to work with and adequate stock to sell. He must have financial stability in order to plan ahead.

If he can buy his gasoline at low cost and sell it at a reasonable profit, he can give good service and maintain his stock of automotive necessities. If he can't, his stock declines and his service to the motoring public suffers.

That is why the price policy of The Atlantic Refining Company includes a recommendation of suggested minimum retail prices to assure the dealer a reasonable profit.

In this way, motorists who stop at the Atlantic sign can be certain they will get high-quality products plus high-quality service at a reasonable price. It all adds up to today's big motoring value.

SENATE PROBES FIND "SADISM" IN YANK MOVIES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee said Monday it had found increasing emphasis on "sadism, brutality and violence" in the movies.

In a report on "Motion Pictures and Juvenile Delinquency," the subcommittee said the movies along with comic books and television "have a tremendous influence on the young child in his early development."

"While once again, as with the comic books and television, no wealth or scientific data can be given as a casual relationship between delinquent behavior and the mass media," the report said, "it is quite clear that professional people generally view the presentation of brutality and violence in these media as definitely deleterious to the personality development of normal, prelinguent and delinquent children."

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), the subcommittee chairman, said in a statement the report "culminates a year of intensive study" by the group.

"Once the industry realized that we were not concerned with the entire motion picture output, but only those pictures that dwelled on brutality, violence, sadism and crime, they quickly joined with us in taking a critical look at a certain portion of their product," Kefauver said.

The report said the subcommittee definitely was opposed to censorship of movies and felt "the industry generally does a fine job in regulating itself."

However, it said it had found many difficulties in administering the industry's motion picture production code, among them that the administrators can only recommend, but not force, changes in a script.

In addition to an overhaul of the motion picture production code the subcommittee recommended that administrators of the code consult with "professional people from the behavioral sciences"; that research projects be initiated in universities to study the effects of all phases of the mass media, particularly on juveniles; and that studios producing films for television submit them to the production code administrators for approval.

The report singled out several pictures for criticism because of emphasis on crime and violence. Among them were "Big House, USA," "Crashout," "Kiss Me Deadly," "Black Tuesday" and "Ten Wanted Men."

Warmer Weather Sweeps Into Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Warmer temperatures swept into most of the Midwest and parts of the winter-weary East Monday, but cold air sent the mercury skidding along the eastern Gulf Coast.

The band of warm air extended from the central and southern plains through the middle Mississippi Valley northward to the northern Great Lakes area.

It promised to bring relief to much of the eastern part of the nation where winter has been dominating the weather picture. The blanket of cool air threatened the multimillion-dollar peach crop of the Carolinas and Georgia for the fourth time in a week.

Temperatures dropped well below the danger point in all three states on Sunday and remained there overnight. Early reports indicated at least some frost damage over a wide area.

Along the East Coast the warming trend reached from Syracuse, N.Y., to Roanoke, Va. A reading of 29 at Syracuse was 14 degrees warmer than yesterday and Roanoke's 45 was a 17-degree rise.

Overflow Watches Church Service on TV

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The overflow of the congregation at the First Presbyterian church of Germantown saw Sunday's Palm Sunday services over a closed circuit television hookup.

Two cameras picked up the service witnessed in person by about 900 persons. In another part of the building, some 200 more worshippers saw it projected on a 10-foot square screen.

The television equipment will be used again next Sunday for an expected overflow Easter crowd.

The Rev. D. Reginald Thomas, pastor of the church, said the use of television at services may become permanent to relieve crowding in the growing congregation.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh said Monday it will increase the salaries of its faculty members over the next five years to place it on a par with some of the highest paid university staffs in the nation.

The announcement was made by Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, Pitt's new chancellor, at a special faculty meeting.

STATE REQUEST IS TURNED DOWN
HARRISBURG (AP)—About 1,200 employees hit by last year's floods will have to make unemployment compensation payments despite state efforts to cancel them.
Secretary of Labor and Industry John R. Torgato said the U. S. Labor Department turned down Pennsylvania's request that the employers be relieved of benefit charges for 6,300 idled employees.
Torgato said yesterday U. S. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell contended provisions of the Federal Internal Revenue Code compelled him to rule against the state request.
Shortly after last year's floods, the Legislature enacted a measure to relieve flood-affected employers of the benefit charges to their accounts for benefits paid as a result of the floods.
The Bureau of Unemployment Compensation has held nearly $650,000 in benefit charges in abeyance but it said they will be assigned to employers involved soon.

USIA PROPOSES BIG INCREASES IN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Information Agency proposes to step up its propaganda efforts by more than half in hopes of countering Russia's new political-economic offensive.

USIA Director Theodore C. Streibert asked a House Appropriations subcommittee to recommend 135 million dollars in the fiscal year beginning next July 1, an increase of about 55 per cent over what Congress appropriated for this year.

In closed-door testimony last month, Streibert sought increases for nearly all USIA activities including Voice of America radio broadcasts. His testimony was made public today.

Among other things, he proposed taking an aircraft carrier out of mothballs, fitting it with Cinerama and nonmilitary display items and sending it on a tour of African, Near Eastern and Far Eastern ports. He estimated the first year's cost at 3 1/4 million dollars. Cinerama is a motion picture technique which gives the viewer a sense of being in the scenes shown.

Streibert proposed also the free distribution of thousands of cheap, hand-powered phonographs, along with records telling America's story, to natives in 27 countries in the Near and Far East.

Streibert said U.S. officials now estimate "that in the next few years there will be less likelihood of military action and more reliance on diplomatic, economic and psychological action by both sides."

"The U.S. government must mount an aggressive psychological program backed by adequate resources," he said.
